

Course Projects & Teams

Summer 2020

Find your name on the chart. You may or may not be part of a team. If your name appears along with others within a box then you are a member of a team that will develop a course project collaboratively.

As shown on the chart, in most cases there will be multiple course projects on the same topic. Your learning community will be required to review your project as well as the other project(s) developed on the same dimension of diversity.
